

PRIVACY NOTICE

When you register for our event, we collect certain personal data about you that you voluntarily provide to us, such as your name, e-mail address, mobile number, job title, name of the company you work for and if you have any allergies that we need to be aware of.

RaySearch Laboratories AB (publ), reg. no 556322-6157, reg. address P.O. Box 3297, 103 65 Stockholm, Sweden, is the controller of your data, which means that we are responsible for how your personal data is collected and used. We respect your privacy and will protect your personal data in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

HOW WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA

In addition to administering your participation in this event, we may use your personal data for future communication purposes, including to send you product information and invitations to future meetings and events, and to maintain our list of contacts. Also, we may allow our suppliers mentioned below to anonymize your personal data and use the anonymized information for product development and for statistical purposes.

When processing your personal data for the purposes explained above, we generally rely on the legal basis of our legitimate interest, as we assess that our interest of performing necessary administration of our events, and our interest of marketing our services and products to recipients within the same business area as us, overrides your interest of protection of your privacy in regard to the information you independently and voluntarily provide to us.

Further, photographs and videos from the event where you are portrayed may be used for documentation and future marketing purposes. Also, we need your consent in order to use information regarding your allergies (if any) to be able to perform necessary administration and safe performance of the event. By clicking on the “consent button” in the registration form you consent to photographs and videos being processed for documentation and marketing purposes and information about allergies being processed for event administration, in accordance with the terms set out in this privacy notice. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us at dataprotection@raysearchlabs.se.

We employ appropriate technical and organizational security measures to help protect your personal data against loss and to guard against access by unauthorized persons. This includes measures to ensure that only the people who need to process your personal data for the purposes mentioned above will have access to your personal data.

We may need to share your personal data with our international offices around Europe, Asia and the United States e.g. so that certain communications and invitations from these offices can also be sent to you. We may also need to allow our suppliers and sub-suppliers to process your personal data when they perform services on our behalf, for the purposes mentioned above, and to maintain and support our IT systems. Other than that we do not make your personal data available to any third party.

Any transfer of data outside the EU/EEA is made in line with data protection laws. Our international transfers of personal data are based on the EU Commission’s standard contractual clauses. The standard contractual clauses may be read here.

We will save your personal data as long as necessary for the purposes specified above (information specific to your participation, e.g. information about allergies, is only kept until the event has taken place or if you withdraw your consent).

As to our marketing activities, we will in our communications give you the opportunity to unsubscribe if you no longer wish to receive communications and invitations from us.

YOUR CHOICES AND RIGHTS

You have the right to know what personal data we process about you and may request a copy. You are also entitled to have incorrect personal data about you corrected and you may in some cases ask us to delete your personal data. You can also object to certain of your personal data being processed and request that processing be limited. Please note that the limitation or deletion of your personal data may mean that we will be unable to perform the activities described above. You also have the right to receive your personal data in a machine-readable format and have the data transferred to another party responsible for data processing.

If you are dissatisfied with how we process your personal data, you are entitled to report this to the Swedish Data Inspection Board (Datainspektionen), which is the regulator for our processing of personal data, or to the data protection authority in the member state that you are resident.

HOW TO CONTACT US
